It is believed a declaration of war is imminent at St. Petersburg. LONEON, 14th April.

In the House of Lords last night Earl Derby in submitting the circular of the Porte, said, be regretted it was unsatisfactory and not at all conducive to a peaceful settlement. A long debate took place in the House of Commons. The Marquis of Hartington, in moving for additional papers, saked for the views of the Government, and how they reconciled the Protocol with the independence an integrity of the Porte, Mr. Gathorne Hardy, in replying, refused to lay a portion of the papers on the table, and said that England's last word, which would be in favour of peace, had not yet been uttered. England objected to make war on Turkey, who had done her no wrong. The Protocol was signed because the Government pelieved it would afford Russia a last chance of disarming. The motion was eventually with-
